

Arlington Public Library seeks applicants for THE ART OF FOOD Juried Group Art Show, April 2010

Guidelines:

This exhibition will be held in conjunction with the Library's annual Arlington Reads program. The book chosen for Arlington Reads 2010 is The Memory of Old Jack by Wendell Berry - the musings of an elderly Kentucky farmer on the "truth and integrity of the land." Inspired by the book, we are looking for art that uses food as a theme or aspect of the artwork, and that explores the ideas of "You are what you eat," what we eat, where/how we eat, who/what eats, the nature of food, where it comes from, how it sustains us/the land, etc. Artists are encouraged to use recycled material in the creation of their art, but this is not a requirement. Artwork may be 2-D, 3-D or photographic. This competition is open to local artists who, if selected, are able to hand deliver/pick-up their work at Arlington Central Library.

Submission Deadline: March 26, 2010
